TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

At the time of the Reformation, although England broke away from papal authority under Henry VIII, a silent majority clung to the Catholic faith. Henry's eldest daughter, Mary, restored the "old religion" in a fierce persecution of Protestants (she is called "Bloody Mary" for good reason.) His youngest daughter, Elizabeth, rejected papal ties. Under her reign, beginning with legislation in 1593, Catholics were persecuted again, and only the very wealthy could afford the fines for not attending Anglican services on Sunday. They were called "recusants," from a Latin word meaning "refuse," since they refused to attend the liturgy of the Church of England. Many families maintained Catholic tradition in secret, and today their descendants claim "Recusancy" as a mark of family pride. For generations they sent their young people abroad to be educated in convents and monasteries. It is not surprising that the first monastery in colonial America springs from Holland with the daughters of patrician English recusant families. Port Tobacco, Maryland, proved fruitful soil for the Carmelite tradition.

Dear Parishioners:

The religious education program at St. Rita's needs your help! There are many children who need religious education and the laborers are few! It is vital that we give witness to the next generation so that they may grow in their faith. If you are interested in volunteering your time to be a CCD teacher and instruct children in our faith, please call the Rectory and ask for Mrs. Helen. God will reward you for your generosity! If any High School students or older would like to volunteer as aides, and security please feel free to contact me! 718-361-1884 ext. 13 Thank you! God Bless!

CALLED BY GOD

Today's scriptures invite us to listen to two calls. The first is the call issued by the LORD to the prophet Amos, the "shepherd and a dresser of sycamores" (Amos 7:14). The second is the call the Lord Jesus issued to the Twelve, whom he sent out "two by two" (Mark 6:7). These faithful people responded to the call, prophesying and preaching to the people to whom they had been sent. Each of us received a call when we were baptized. The second reading invites us to ponder that call as we are reminded that we are chosen in Christ and that, in love, God "destined us for adoption" (Ephesians 1:5). As adopted daughters and sons of God we are called to bring the presence of Christ into our marriages, families, schools, and places of work. Let us be inspired today to say yes to the call we hear once again through God's living word.

Heard about the fellow who's cat was as sick as a dog.

"Waiter! Waiter! That steak was too rare, it just gored my wife. I'm not complaining, I'm re-ordering!"

HOLY HUMOR

“If you want to keep happy and healthy, try being an ‘inverse paranoid,’ “ says Dr. Rich Bimler, a Lutheran pastor ad father.” An inverse paranoid is someone who thinks everyone is out to make him happy.

“Try it. It works. Just imagine everyone you meet is trying to bring happiness and joy to your life. And then try to do the same for them.”

Dr. Bimler, a JN consulting editor and president of Wheat Ridge Ministries in Itasca, IL, writes in his book Angels Can Fly Because They Take Themselves Lightly:

:You and I are called by God to be happy. To be happy does not mean that everything has to go right, and that problems and frustrations disappear. A happy person in the Lord is one who knows from where strength and comfort come.”

He advises Christians to “live joyfully in the forgiveness that is your each day.”

After a wedding, a teacher in a Catholic school asked her teen-agers the definition of marriage. A girl answered, “It’s a sacrament which ignites a man and a woman.”

LLAMADOS POR DIOS

Las lecturas de hoy nos invitan a escuchar dos llamados. El primero es el llamado del Señor al profeta Amós, el “pastor y cultivador de higos” (Amós 7:14). El segundo es el llamado del Señor Jesús a los Doce, a quienes envió “de dos en dos” (Marcos 6:7). Estas personas fieles respondieron al llamado, profetizaron y predicaron a aquellos a quienes habían sido enviados. En el Bautismo, cada uno de nosotros recibió un llamado. La segunda lectura nos invita a reflexionar sobre ese llamado ya que se nos recuerda que hemos sido elegidos en Cristo y que, por amor, Dios “nos eligió... para que fuéramos sus hijos” (Efesios 1:5). Por ser hijos adoptivos de Dios se nos llama a llevar la presencia de Cristo a nuestro matrimonio, familiares, escuelas y sitios de trabajo. Sintámonos inspirados a decir “sí” hoy al llamado que escuchamos una vez más en la palabra viva de Dios.
