Saints of the Week

Saints Peter and Paul are two of the most important figures who helped shape the Catholic Church.

Saint Peter was a fisherman when Jesus called him to follow him. He became one of Jesus's closest friends. Even though he made some serious mistakes, like denying Jesus, he was forgiven and became the first leader of the Church, eventually dying a martyr's death.

Saint Paul didn't believe in Jesus at first and even tried to stop his followers. But one day, Jesus appeared to him in a vision and Paul's heart changed. He became a missionary and traveled to many places to tell people about Jesus. He also wrote letters that are now part of the Bible. Like Saint Peter, he died a martyr's death.

Together Peter and Paul represent the heart and soul of the early Church. They remind us that God calls all kinds of people. Peter and Paul are both buried in Rome, and both are celebrated on the same day- June 29th.
